

01 | Colorful by Jonathan Bowling
301 Hay Street, Arts Council

02 | Tall Trikaya by Rob Lorenson
Rowan and Green Streets

03 | Giraffe by Jonathan Bowling
433 Hay Street, City Hall Plaza

04 | Flight of Wings by Phil Hathcock and Omar Llanos
Ray and Hay Streets

05 | Windstone by Phil Hathcock
325 Franklin Street
Fayetteville Area Transportation & History Museum

06 | Fall Leaves by Bob Doster
106 Hay Street

07 | Be Still and Know by John Merigian
Hay and Old Streets

08 | Golden Mirror by Tripp Jarvis
Ray Avenue, Festival Park

09 | Tree of Good and Evil by Charles Pilkey
Maxwell Street, Arts Council

10 | Natural Embrace by Paul Hill
Person Street Plaza

11 | X's by Rob Lorenson
Gillespie and Person Streets

WORK IN PROGRESS

an exhibition of temporary public art installations

Special thanks to our donors

Dr. & Mrs. Patrick E. Callahan
Tony & Joanne Chavonne
Jenny & Kirk deViere
Downtown Alliance
Timothy D. Edwards & Bill Jordan
Eric Lindstrom—sfl+a Architects
John Malzone Marketing
Rhonda & Eric Nobles
Olde Fayetteville Insurance
Terry & Jan Smith
The Mayon & Mackie Weeks Family

Public Art Committee

Chair, Eric Lindstrom	Soni Martin
William "Bill" Crisp	Calvin Mims
Tony Chavonne	Daniel Montoya
Michael Gibson	Leslie Pearson
Bobby Hurst	Mayon Weeks

Art Coordination by Jim Davis, Sculpture in the Landscape

Artwork can be enjoyed daily through October 2017.

Want to see more? Visit our website www.theartscouncil.com/publicart
Show us your public art photos! #theartscouncil

*Art.
Always On.
In the heart of Fayetteville.*

"Work in Progress" is a temporary public art exhibition gifted to the Fayetteville community through private donors and matched with Arts Council funding.

Appreciation to Fayetteville-Cumberland Parks & Recreation, the City of Fayetteville, Cumberland County, NC Arts Council and Arts Council donors.

