

2014-2015 Exhibitions at the Arts Council

Mediating Relevance: The Politics of Gender

Presented by Ellington-White CDC

Aug. 22 to Oct. 18, 2014

Works of art, from many different perspectives, that investigate and question society's position or perceptions on gender roles and otherness.

Black & White

Presented by the Arts Council

Oct. 24 to Dec. 13, 2014

An invitational exhibition presenting the striking contrast of two- and three-dimensional works created in black and white.

Words and Pictures: Illustrated Works by Kadir Nelson

Presented by the Arts Council

Jan. 23 to Feb. 28, 2015

Experience the strength, the poise and the beauty of works by nationally acclaimed artist Kadir Nelson. Both an accomplished painter and author, Nelson truly shares his "Heart and Soul," which also happens to be the title of one of the books he wrote and illustrated. See words and pictures from that publication, as well as breathtaking paintings from WE ARE THE SHIP: The Story of Negro League Baseball in this broad presentation of his award-winning works.

15th Annual Cumberland County High School Juried Art Exhibition

Presented by the CCS Arts Education Program

Early March 2015

Drawings, paintings, sculpture and mixed media - made by local high school art students - are presented by the school system's Arts Education Program. See what these talented students create for this juried show!

Earthy Abstraction (an invitational)

Presented by Ellington-White CDC

March 27 to May 16, 2015

Features the work of artists who work with natural materials of soil, stone, clay, found objects, wood and other natural materials to create two- and three-dimensional works of art.

Public Works 2015

Presented by the Arts Council

May 22 to June 20, 2015

Trees, triangles and trains, eagles and eyeballs. More than 100 pieces of work represent a cross section of subjects, styles and skill levels of our community.
