

2016-2017 Exhibitions at the Arts Council

Pictorial Space

Presented by Ellington-White CDC

July 22 – August 20

Artists investigate the concept of visual space through use of texture, color and depth.

Contemporary Art Forms by America's First People

Presented by the Arts Council

Aug. 26 – Oct. 22

While art by "America's First People" is deeply rooted in tradition, the work in this exhibition is contemporary and shows the perspective of Native American artists who are living and creating today. (Note: Special exhibition hours during September 4th Friday and International Folk Festival weekend)

Transformation: Recycling Reclaimed Objects into Art

Presented by the Arts Council

Oct. 28 – Dec. 10

One man's trash is another man's . . . art. The Transformation exhibition features artists who have a knack for repurposing objects to create fine art. Go on a whimsical journey as recycle artists think about discarded materials in a new way. Many of the pieces are for sale, so start your holiday shopping early.

Reflections: African American Life from the Myrna Colley-Lee Collection

Presented by the Arts Council

Feb. 3 – Mar. 4

Culture. Inspiration. Storytelling. The Reflections exhibition is a celebration of the diversity of African-American identity through paintings, collages, photographs, textile pieces and works on paper. This exhibition is comprised of select works from the private collection of Myrna Colley-Lee, an arts patron and advocate, and includes such noted artists as Elizabeth Catlett, Romare Bearden, Gwen Knight, Betye Saar, James Van Der Zee, and Eudora Welty. Reflections is organized by International Arts & Artists, Washington, DC in collaboration with the office of Myrna Colley-Lee.

17th Annual Cumberland County High School Juried Art Exhibition

Presented by the CCS Arts Education Program

Mar. 7 – 17

Drawings, paintings, sculpture and mixed media – made by local high school art students – are presented by the school system's Arts Education Program. See what these talented students create for this juried show!

The 3rd Annual Art and Flowers Juried Competition

Presented by Ellington-White CDC

Mar. 24 – May 19

As part of an ongoing commitment to promote the visual arts in Fayetteville, Ellington-White Contemporary Gallery (EWCG) will presents its 3rd Art and Flowers Exhibition," a celebration pairing of original floral artworks created by today's contemporary artists, with eye-catching floral arrangements created by local area floral designers and event planners.

Public Works 2017

Presented by the Arts Council

May 26 – July 22

Trees, triangles and trains, eagles and eyeballs. More than 100 pieces of work represent a cross section of subjects, styles and skill levels of our community.