

2015-2016 Exhibitions at the Arts Council

Point of View

Presented by The Arts Council

July 24 – Sept 12, 2015

Point of View is a juried photography competition highlighting 46 artists from an 11-county region.

Celebrando La Creatividad

Presented by the Latino Community Connects

September 25 – Oct. 17, 2015

Experience photography, paintings, drawings and ceramics by North Carolina artists with Latino and Hispanic roots.

Recycle – The Art of Transformation

Presented by The Arts Council

October 23 – Dec. 12, 2015

One man's trash his another man's...art. "Recycle" exhibition presents works created using materials being reused or recycled.

Romare Bearden: Beat of a Different Drum

Presented by The Arts Council

Jan. 22 – Feb. 27, 2016

The exhibit will feature the only children's book ever written and illustrated by Bearden, Li'l Dan, the Drummer Boy: A Civil War Story. This highly anticipated six-week exhibition will include artistic performances, lectures, school tours in conjunction with this dynamic exhibition.

Special programming included:

Feb. 13 from 10 a.m. to noon: Lectures and music programs by the Fayetteville State University's Department of Performing and Fine Arts and a youth workshop on drumming facilitated by musician Alex Weiss. Space is limited. Youth workshop is for ages 8 to 14 and registration is required by calling (910) 323-1776 or e-mail admin@theartscouncil.com.

Feb. 20 at 1 p.m.: Discussion on collecting African-American art, with special guests Jerald Melberg and Dwight Smith, facilitated by Calvin Mims.

16th Annual Cumberland County High School Juried Art Exhibition

March 9-19, 2016

Cumberland County Schools Arts Education Program

Experience artistry of local youth during the annual exhibition that places the works young artists front and center in the Arts Council Galleries.

Once Upon a Time: Fairy Tales, Fables and Myths

Presented by the Ellington-White Community Development Corporation

May 24 – April 16, 2016

2nd Art and Flowers Exhibition

Presented by the Ellington-White Community Development Corporation

April 22- May 21, 2016

Celebrate original floral creations by today's contemporary artists, with eye-catching floral arrangements created by local floral designers and event planners.

Public Works

Presented by The Arts Council

May 27 – June 18, 2016

Trees, triangles and trains. Eagles and eyeballs. More than 100 pieces of work represent a cross section of subjects, styles and skill levels of our community.